

A Career Counselling Session

A career counselling session was organised jointly by the dept of English and Political Science of D.K College on 27/10/2018 in the college Conference Hall. The session was conducted by Mr. Akshay Jyoti Sarma, Assistant Professor of OKD Institute of Social Change and Research. Mr Sarma guided students regarding their choices available to them after graduation. The programme was successful and the students actively participated in the session and tried to clear their doubts regarding their career choices and opportunities available to them. A total number of 29 students of B.A 5th sem from both the department attended the session.