

Sharing of Experiences

The English Study Forum in association with The Economics Study Forum organised an “experience sharing programme” on 29/09/2022. Liza Kalita, B.A 5th sem of English department and Rimli Risha Pathak, B.A 5th sem of Economics department acted as the resource persons. They shared their experiences from the One Day Workshop on “Communication skill and personality development” organised on 24/09/2022 at Cotton University. A total number of 63 students were present in the session.

